WDIY Extends Their Gratitude to Area Supporters for their Generosity.

(Lehigh Valley, PA) WDIY 88.1 FM, the Lehigh Valley's not-for-profit public radio would like to address the generous benefactors that have provided support of during 2007. WDIY thanks the following foundations and corporations for their donations. The donated funding aims to assist in station programs and projects geared towards the arts, WDIY Youth Media Programming and general assistance.

Donations designated to the WDIY Youth Media Program include The Crayola Factory of Easton, Mack Truck, The Charles H. Hoch Foundation of Allentown and The Century Foundation based out of New York, NY. Additional artistic development programs for WDIY have received funding from The Dexter F. and Dorothy H. Baker Foundation and The Bethlehem Fine Arts Commission.

General supportive funds have been provided by: The Walter and Alma Bastian Foundation, Inc., The Corporation for Public Broadcasting, The County of Lehigh, Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., C.F. Martin and Company of Nazareth, Sylvia Perkin Perpetual Charitable Trust, and The Rider-Pool Foundation of Allentown.

WDIY 88.1 FM is grateful to have the support of these foundations and corporations. The generous, ongoing support is appreciated. Visit our website, www.wdiy.org for updates on additional support provided to the station through the new year.
